REMARKS

25X1X

1. On 9 May 1951, a column of personnel of the SCC in Weimar was seen marching to the cemetery where they attended a ceremony in honor of the Soviet war dead. The column was headed by 350 to 400 officers who were followed by 5 or 6 companies of soldiers. Each company was preceded by four officers.
2. The movement of the SCC from Weimar to Erfurt was expected to take place at the end of May. Billets for officers and enlisted personnel in Erfurt were already prepared. *
3. The Flieger Kaserne in Weimar-Mohra was virtually vacant on 11 May. **

* [REDACTED] Comment. Another source previously reported that the SCC in Weimar would move to Dessau. See [REDACTED].

 [REDACTED] Comment. The information confirms previous reports by two other sources indicating that the components of the 20th Ws Lebz Div from the Flieger Kaserne, Weimar-Mohra, departed in mid-April 1951, probably going to Ohrdruf. See [REDACTED].
